Life Reflections

Mr. Bertram Elmo McKey, also known as “Saddy Mack”, was born on November 17, 1916 in Mahaica E.C.D., Guyana, South America. The son of the late David and Rebecca McKey.

Bertram was educated in the Mahaica Public School system.

In his village, he became a prominent Tailor and was employed by the Guyanese Government for thirty-five years.

Bertram married Irene Peters and their union was blessed with seven children.

In 1985, he and his family migrated to the United States where he continued his skillful trade in Brooklyn, New York and later in Roselle, New Jersey.

Bertram was a talented Dominos and Checkers player.

He was predeceased by his daughter, Margaret also known as Silvie; brother, Edwin; and sisters, Olive and Isil.

Bertram Elmo McKey lived a full life at the age of ninety-six. He was called home peacefully on Thursday, December 27, 2012.

Surviving are his loving wife, Irene; sons: Stephen (Sandrene), Joseph, Felix (Lorraine), Hubert (Brenda), Lennox (Paula), Lennox E. (Natalie), Albert (Rosemary), and Herol (Amelene); daughters: Holly and Iris (Neville); forty-four grandchildren; thirteen great-grandchildren; brother, Vibert; sister, Mavis; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.

Lovingly and sorrowfully submitted

To Say Goodbye

*To say goodbye is not the end
To all my family and friends
For life goes on, you must endure
For my eternity is sure.
Remember all the good times
The memories we've shared
The precious jewels of laughter
The tender love and care.
I found my resting place
God's peace surrounds my soul
Let love abound in all your hearts
Let heaven be your goal.*
