

Psalm 23

The Lord is My Shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures; He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul. He leadeth me in the path of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies. Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

*You will be missed in so many ways.
You are still with us when any of us prays.
Your voice your smile your heart so sweet.
The time came for you and the Lord to meet.
You replaced this life for wings and a crown.
It is now time to spread even more love around.
I love you and will miss you always.*

ORDER OF SERVICE

Loretta “Moms” Mildred Daniels was born July 13, 1923 to the proud parents, Alethia and Benjamin Franklin Daniels in Brooklyn, NY. She was the second of three children, the oldest being her sister, Ruth and the youngest Benjamin Jr. Educated in NY, Moms graduated from Haaren High School in 1941. Upon moving to Englewood, NJ she became a member of and a lay-reader for St. Paul’s Church in Englewood, NJ.

Loretta was employed by City Bank, the US Postal Service and finally Corn Product Corporation from which she retired. Moms was a mentor in Englewood and in her youth in Harlem along with her husband, Martin “Pops”. As a founding member of the Woman’s Alcoholic Recovery Center at Bergen Pines in Paramus, NJ, Moms touched many lives. Loretta’s time on earth was well spent and will never be forgotten. Her influence reflects the quote of Horace Mann, “Be afraid to die before winning a victory for mankind”. The testaments to that are her mentees who are now upstanding citizens that serve their communities from coast to coast and abroad. Loretta “Moms” will live on in our hearts as a devoted mother, sister and friend.

She is survived by: four sons, Anthony Dexter in Paris, Peter Geoffrey in London, David Michael in London and Rhett Daniels in New Jersey; nine grandchildren, Anthony Marcello, Malane in Berlin, Vanessa Elsas in Paris, China Cecily in NY, Peter Martin in NY, Joseph Erawan in London, Maxmillian Kwamana in London, Noah Maxwell in Manchester, UK, Gupi (previously deceased, living in heaven); four great grandchildren, Maya, Cooper, Leonardo and Ziggy; and a host of friends too numerous to mention but her “ace boon” was Audrey “Drey” Robertson, eternal friend of “Moms” and family.
