Life Reflections

Wesley G. Bryant was born on May 21, 1939 in Washington, Pennsylvania, son of Lucy Jones Bryant and Edward Bryant.

Wesley attended Morris College in Sumter, South Carolina. Shortly after he left school in 1959, he relocated to Linden, New Jersey, where he worked for Fred Jo Corporation founded by his uncle, Fred Jones. After his uncle's death, he continued construction work and was assigned to building projects throughout the Union and Essex county areas through Union Local 694 in Newark, New Jersey. He retired in 2004 and went on to create his own business where he continued to focus on his love of building and brick masonry. He took pride in his work and glowed when his clients were pleased with his craftsmanship.

"Fatman", as he was affectionately known, loved God and reading the Bible and books on philosophy. He was always ready and eager to engage in philosophical discussions and would often captivate people with his wisdom.

Wesley G. Bryant departed this life on Monday, June 28, 2010 at Trinitas Regional Medical Center in Elizabeth, New Jersey at the age of 71. He was predeceased by his parents, Lucy and Edward Bryant.

He leaves to cherish fond memories: two brothers, Edward Bryant of Trenton, NJ and Fred Bryant of Linden, NJ; two sisters, Linda Bryant and Yvonne Bryant both of Linden, NJ; a sister-in-law, Brenda Bryant; two nephews, Jayson and Gregory Bryant; a niece, Jovana Calland; and a host of cousins, other relatives and friends.

HIS JOURNEY'S JUST BEGUN

*Don't think of him as gone away –
his journey's just begun;
life holds so many facets –
this earth is only one.
Just think of him as resting from the sorrows and the tears in a place of warmth and comfort where there are no days and years.
Think how he must be wishing that we could know today
how nothing but our sadness can really pass away.
And think of him as living in the hearts of those he touched... for nothing loved is ever lost...
and he was loved so much!*

*Lovingly and Sorrowfully,
The Family*

"Where Our Sympathy Expresses Itself Through Sincere Service"

Pall Bearers
Family and Friends of Wesley Bryant

*There comes a time for all of us
When we must say good-bye
But faith and hope and love and Trust can never, never die.
Although the curtain falls at last
Is that a cause to grieve?
The future's fairer than the past
If only we believe
And trust in God's eternal care-
So when the Master calls
Let's say that life is still more fair
Although the curtain falls.*

Acknowledgement

The family of Wesley Bryant acknowledges with sincere appreciation every thought and act of kindness expressed to us during this our hour of bereavement. We will always keep you in our prayers. May God continue to richly bless you.
