Obituary

Charles Lee, Jr., a.k.a “Chicken,” the son of Carrie Williams and Charles Lee, Sr., was born on May 2, 1972 in Jersey City, New Jersey. He made his Heavenly transition in Newport Richey, FL on July 10, 2010.

Charles attended Dickinson High School. He worked many different jobs, but his love for repairing cars was a dream of his.

He moved to Clearwater, FL, then to Newport Richey, FL.

He leaves to behind: his fiancée of ten years, Angela Arline; two children, son, Romello; daughter, Trinneddy Lee; one sister, Lille Lee; two brothers, Eddie Lee, Martin Tatum; and a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins, friends and Godmother, Gloria Williams.

To Daddy from Romello:

Daddy by watching you and how generous you were with your love, your wisdom and your time I have learned how to become excellent person, being loved by you has taught me that your love was my greatest gift, in this world besides mommy, you show me my path, this path gave me life, I'll keep my memories of you daddy so near, so tight. You always said I am a man, so today I stand, I let go of your hand. because this is God plan, we were blessed because we had a wonderful father, teacher, friend, I'll never hear that laugh again, see your face or you smile or grin, look down on us every once in a while.

~ Love your son, Romello & daughter, Trinneddy Lee

Psalm 23

(A psalm of David)

The LORD is my shepherd, I shall not be in want.
He makes me lie down in green pastures,
he leads me beside quiet waters,
he restores my soul.
He guides me in paths of righteousness
for his name's sake.
Even though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, [a]
I will fear no evil,
for you are with me;
your rod and your staff,
they comfort me.
You prepare a table before me
in the presence of my enemies.
You anoint my head with oil;
my cup overflows.
Surely goodness and love will follow me
all the days of my life, and I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever.
