Obituary

A wise and loving God who makes no mistakes saw fit to call home Jamelah Elizabeth Miriam Kears on Wednesday, July 14, 2010.

Jamelah was born on October 18, 1989 in Brooklyn, New York to Darryl and Edri Kears. The birth of this beautiful baby girl was a blessing to the proud parents.

An extraordinary young woman from the beginning, Jamelah attended Canarsie High School in Brooklyn, New York and graduated from Valley Central High School in Orange County, New York. Jamelah aspired to a career in the computer technology industry and was a student at Borough of Manhattan Community College.

To have known Jamelah was to have loved her. Jamelah's open heart and loving spirit led all to embrace and love her. Jamelah took pride in being the protector of her four brothers whom she adored. Free spirited and fun loving, Jamelah had a heart of gold. She was thoughtful and compassionate, yet was never one to shy away from confrontation. Her beautiful smile and laugh were infectious and her optimism was truly a gift from God. Like most teenagers, Jamelah enjoyed the latest in fashion and trends. She was a unique person with a signature style all her own. Beautiful in dresses and heels, you would commonly find Jamelah wearing flip flops and pajamas.

Her unique spirit will be missed by all who knew her.

Jamelah often said "My heart is extra large, because I love so many people". Though she has been greeted in the kingdom by many of her loved ones, Jamelah leaves to cherish her memory: her loving parents, Darryl and Edri Kears; devoted step parents, Barry Roberts and Suzanne Patrick; four loving brothers, Rashad, Triston, Isaiah, and Nigel; grandparents, Howard Tyrone Powell and Arlene Kears; two aunts, Shareen Harris and Ceil Kears; two uncles, Tyrone Powell and Darryl Carpenter; and a host of adoring cousins and a multitude of loving friends.

Though our Sunflower is no longer with us, we know that she is now planted in the beautiful garden of our Lord. — The Family

My Little Angel

My little angel you've just walked on ahead of me
And I've got to understand
You must release the ones you love
And let go of their hand
I try and cope the best I can
But I'm missing you so much
If I could only see you
And once more feel your touch
Yes, you've just walked on ahead of me
Don't worry I'll be fine
But now and then I swear I feel
Your hand slip in to mine.
