Obituary

Tomas Vivian Marshall best known as Flaco or Panama was born in the Republic of Panama in Gorgas Hospital to Winnifred Walton-Marshall and Vivian "Columbia" Tomas Marshall who preceded him in death. He grew up loving music and dancing. Tomas had a passion for cooking, dancing and music. He was a musician, drums was his passion. He was a nature lover especially of birds. He completed his schooling in Panama before migrating to the USA.

On Sunday, September 19, 2010, our Lord took him home.

He is survived by: his wife, Nena Marshall, who took care of him until he passed; two sisters and two brothers, Emilia, Alelia, Victor and Wallas; eight children, Belva, Ivonne, Tomas, Tracy, John, Olga, Mario and Jessica; one step-son, Jay; one step-daughter, Renee (who predeceased him); eighteen grandchildren; five great grandchildren; first cousin, Belva Drew; and a host of nieces, nephews, great nieces, great nephews, cousins, neighbors and friends.

He will never be forgotten. He will be remembered by all who knew and loved him.

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free,
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took his hand when I heard Him call,
turned my back and left it all.*

*I could not stay another day: to laugh,
to love, to work or play.*

Tasks left undone must stay that way.

I found my peace at the close of day.

If my parting has left a void, then fill it with remembered joy.

*A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
ah, yes, these things I too will miss.*

Be not burdened with times of sorrow.

I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.

My life has been good, I've savored much:

Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.

Although my time with you seemed brief and don't lengthen it now with undue grief.

Lift up your hearts and rejoice with me,

God wanted me now, He set me free.
