Reflections of Life

Robert Rogers, Jr. “Boo” was born in Avon Park, Florida on April 4, 1938 to proud parents, Mae Belle and Robert Rogers, Sr.

Robert “Boo” was educated at Hope Well Elementary School and E.O. Douglas High School in Avon Park, FL.

He received his Boiler Engineer License and was hired by the Board of Education in the City of Paterson. He often visited Ten G’s Social Club and was a member of North Main Street Social Club.

Robert was predeceased by his father, Robert Rogers, Sr., mother, Mae Belle Rogers, siblings, Jimmy Lee Rogers, Joyce Rogers, Catherine Rogers and Naomi Rogers.

After a lengthy illness he transitioned from this life on October 23, 2010. Cheerful giver to “Cancer Society.”

Robert “Boo” leaves to cherish loving memories: his children; two brothers, Orlando Rogers and Willie Edwards Rogers of Delaware, MD; one aunt, Ollie Davis of Paterson, NJ; dearest friend, Shirley Robertson; and of host of nieces, nephews and grandchildren.

It Takes A Lifetime

*It takes a lifetime to learn how to live,
How to share and how to give
How to face tragedy that comes your way
How to find courage to face each new day,
How to smile when your heart is so sore,
How to go on when you can't take anymore,
How to laugh when you want to cry,
How to be brave when you say goodbye
How to love when you're loss is so great
How to forgive when your urge is to late
How to know that God is really there*

Acknowledgement

*The family acknowledges with deep appreciation all acts of kindness extended to them during this bereavement hour.
God bless you for all your thoughtfulness and concern.*
