Obituary

Charlene Bobbitt was born February 6, 1934 to both the late Benjamin Sharp, Sr. and Jennie Webb Sharp in Edison, Georgia. She was educated in the Edison Georgia Public Schools and finished her education at East Orange High School, East Orange, New Jersey.

Wherever Charlene found herself, her role was outstanding because her performance was always superb. This was manifested in her professional life as a General Motors employee who started her employment in April of 1962 and retired after thirty years of dedicated service.

Charlene was a very loyal and faithful daughter, sister, mother, grandmother, great grandmother, aunt, cousin, and friend to countless people. Her faith in God and love for people were pillars of her life's testimony.

On Sunday, November 14, 2010 at the Clara Maass Medical Center in Belleville, New Jersey her curtain closed and she made her transition to glory.

Charlene's beautiful memories will continue and will be cherished with her family, especially with her two sons, Jimmy Small and his wife Denise, East Orange, New Jersey, and Abdul-Mani Hassan and his wife Rabiah, Linden, New Jersey; her eldest sister Altrice Finch, East Orange, New Jersey; four grandchildren, Sala, Zaynah, Aneesah, and Ibrahim. She also leaves behind her five great grandchildren and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and other bereaved relatives and friends.

Mother's

Love

A mother's love is everlasting though the flesh is gone. The memories of joy and laughter will still live on I will always miss your voice and your presence I will remember all of the times we shared. Don't worry I will move on as I get in my car listening to your favorite song, "I Got Love On My Mind" - I know life still goes on as I start my days and end my nights my mother's love will embrace me tight. Feeling your presence and knowing you're there letting me know I have nothing to fear. I will then close my eyes and squeeze real tight then I will have a good sleep.
