Obituary

Frank Washington, Sr. was born on October 24, 1925 to the late Francis and Mariah Washington in Charleston, South Carolina.

He was educated in the Charleston School system and after he completed the 12th grade he joined the US Navy, after his service he settled in Newark, NJ. It was there he met and married his "Sweetie" Doris Harrison.

Frank was a Hillside resident for thirty-eight years. He worked for Hatfield Wire & Cable for thirty-nine years as a machinist. He also was employed at the Elizabeth Public Library for eleven years. Frank was a Member of the International Masons, St. James Lodge #37. He was an avid enthusiast of music, dance and loved talking to all people. His favorite mantra was "HELLO".

Frank leaves to cherish his memory: his wife, Doris Washington of Hillside, New Jersey; his son, Frank Washington, Jr.; three daughters, Beverly Lewis (Henry), Phyllis Carter and Patricia Williams (Bruce); two sisters, Ruth McCraven and Flossie Haynes of Myrtle Beach, South Carolina; brother-in-law, Brooks Harrison of Newark, New Jersey; niece, Selena McClinton (Malcolm); seven grandchildren, Kim Washington-Weston (Anthony), Kyle Lewis (Corinne), Garrett Lewis, Brett Williams, Averi Carter, Brandon Williams and Bryan Williams; four great-grandchildren, Anthony, Jr., Kimora, Bryce and Alexis; and a host of cousins, other relatives and friends.

*I'd like the memory of me
To be a happy one,
I'd like to leave an afterglow
Of smiles when the day is done.
I'd like to leave an echo
Whispering softly down the ways,
Of happy times and laughing times
And bright and sunny days.
I'd like the tears of those who
Grieve to dry before the sun,
Of happy memories that
I leave behind.*
