Obituary

Clementine Tucker-Gordon came into this world with a burst of energy. She couldn't wait for the hospital, she was born at home.

She was a lover of people, all people, everyone she met she was interested in. She had an army of friends, whom she loved dearly.

She graduated from high school and went to work in the Garment District from which she retired. She loved to spend her time with the senior citizens. She had beautiful friends who helped her while she was sick.

She leaves to mourn: her two sisters; two nephews; two nieces; and two goddaughters.

Morning Prayer

*Dear God, as I begin this day
Let me turn my thoughts to you,
And ask your help in guiding me
In all that I say and do.*

*Give me the patience that I need
To keep my peace of mind
And with life's cares I hope dear God
Some happiness to find.*

*Let me live but for today
Not worrying what's ahead
For I have trust that you will see
I get my daily bread.*

*And if some wish I do not get
Though I have prayed to thee,
Help me to believe and understand
You know what's best for me.*

*I've failed you many times I know
But when tonight I rest,
I hope that I can kneel and say
"Thank God for taking me through this another day". In Jesus name we pray. Amen.*
