Obituary

Henry Emanuel Conliffe was born in Brooklyn, New York to proud and loving parents, Theodore and Lorraine Conliffe on January 26, 1951. The youngest brother to Edward, David and Daniel, the family resided in Brooklyn where Henry attended school, graduating from Bushwick High School.

Furthering his education, Henry received his undergraduate degree in Criminal Justice from John J. College in New York and later earned his Masters in Education from City University in New York.

Henry briefly worked for the Department of Corrections as a Mental Health Worker but his heart and passion was devoted to education and teaching. In this field, Henry worked for the Department of Education as a Science and U.S. History teacher for over thirty years. As a child, he loved to watch the television series "Sea Hunt." This love propelled his devotion to swimming and all things under the sea. He became an able swimmer and diver and worked for the New York City Department of Parks as a Life Guard at city beaches, outdoor and indoor pools for over four decades. He traveled the world exploring underwater dive adventures and felt most content and peaceful in this underwater world. An avid interest in all things historical, cultural and educational, Henry traveled and experienced the world first hand.

From his union with Barbara Lewis, one child was born, Erica Lewis-Conliffe. He leaves to mourn: his loving daughter, Erica; his grandson, Justin; brother, David; and a loving list of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives and friends.

Many lives were touched and changed by knowing Henry E. Conliffe. He will be missed deeply by family and friends and his spirit will live forever in our hearts.

Our Eternal Love,
The Conliffe Family

Walk With Me, Daddy

*Walk alongside me, daddy
And hold my hand.
I have so many things to learn
That I don't yet understand.*

*Teach me the things to keep me safe
From dangers every day.
Show me how to do my best,
At home, at school, at play*

*Every child needs a gentle hand
To guide them as they grow,
So walk alongside me, daddy ~
We have a long way to go.*
