Obituary

Frank Leeboy Gray was born in Newark, New Jersey on December 8, 1942 to the loving parents of, Helen Gray and Frank Davis. After suffering a very lengthy illness God came and took him away from all the pain and suffering on February 8, 2011.

God is so merciful that when he was diagnosed with cancer seven years ago and they said, "He had six months to live". God gave him an extra seven years.

Frank was known as Leeboy by many, he had a great heart. He lived a very busy and active life. Leeboy helped people whenever he could. He graduated from Wilson Avenue School in 1957. Leeboy ran track, played baseball and he mastered Kung Fu in the Alan Lee Style of WUSU.

He had a strong love for children. He worked at the health food store down town Newark for many years with his boss George.

He loved to read books and had a collection of D-Classified. As his life went on he met the love of his life, Pauline and they had one daughter, Ilene. He had adopted a son, Omar Butch Williams.

Frank was preceded in death by his parents, Helen Goode and Frank Davis, brother, Omar Shareef, nephews, Shaheed Ferguson and Omar Everett, aunt, Marge and uncle, Harry Gray.

Frank leaves to mourn and cherish his memory: his brothers, Blair E. Goode and Frank Davis, Jr.; sister, Darlene Davis; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends that will miss him very much.

We love Frank but God loves you more...Rest In Peace.

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid you see
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day.
To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found the peace at the close of day.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much.
Good friends, good times, a love one's touch.
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your hearts and peace be to thee,
God wanted me now, He set me free.*
