Obituary

Mrs. Christine Williams, was born on October 3, 1928 in Wendell, North Carolina to the late Plummer and Elizabeth Foster. She departed this earthly life on Tuesday, February 8, 2011.

Christine received her formal education in Newark, New Jersey and retired from Newark Extended Care Facilities after thirty-two years of services. She was a member of NAACP in Newark, NJ and traveled extensively with them to their conventions. She was a member of White Rock Baptist Church in Newark, NJ.

Christine was affectionately, loved and cherished by her family and friends. Family was very important to her. She treasured the times she spent talking with her family. She will always be remembered for her cherry pie, sweet potato pie, bingo and Atlantic City.

Christine was predeceased by her husband, Raymond Williams, son, Maurice Foster and granddaughter, Lakisha Marcella Foster.

She leaves to cherish her memories: her former husband, Joseph Lee Johnson; three daughters, Louise J. Cooper of Rahway, NJ, Gwendolyn Starks of Newark, NJ and Catherine Johnson of Roselle, NJ; two grandchildren; six great grandchildren; there was a special bond formed between her niece, Stacy Foster Raheen, who she raised and nurtured, this relationship lasted all her life. Christine was called Auntie by those who loved her dearly and had a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives and friends.

We, the family humbly submit to the Almighty will of God. Mommy, we are not saying farewell, for we know in the Great getting up Morning we shall meet again, in a moment, in a twinkling of an eye. So we say good night for now. We will see you in the morning when the Great Trumpet Sounds. Sleep on Mommy and take your rest, we all love you much but God loved you best.

Mom

Dear Mom we'll miss your unconditional love,
No one could love us more except our Lord up above.
Whether times were good or bad,
You were there for us and you didn't get mad.
We knew it would be okay because of the mom we had.
You helped raise four generations,
Now it's time for your vacation.
So you rest in peace we'll be alright,
Now it's our turn to keep the family tight.
I'll thank the Lord for you every night.

Love, Louise, Gwendolyn & Catherine

Perhaps

Perhaps you sent a lovely card, or sat quietly in a chair.
Perhaps you sent a floral piece, if so, we saw it there.
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words, as any friends could say, Perhaps you were not there at all, just thought of us that day. Whatever you did to console our hearts, we thank you so much whatever the part.

Acknowledgements

*The family wishes to acknowledge with deep appreciation
the many expressions of love, concern and kindness shown to their family during this hour of bereavement.
May God Bless and Keep You!*
