Obituary

Mrs. Belba Lee Hendricks was born August 6, 1945. She grew up in Virginia and spent her teen years and adulthood in New York City.

As an adult, she worked for the United States Postal Service where she met and married her husband, Alfred Hendricks. She had a long career in the Postal Service and retired after thirty-seven years.

Belba portrayed humor and sunshine to all who came in contact with her. She was a kind hearted and generous person. She spent her time socializing with friends and family often involving many trips to Atlantic City, Empire City and Vegas. Anyone who had the pleasure to travel with her knows that she truly enjoyed herself. She would flash that mischievous, happy smile and you could not help but feel happy too.

She is survived by: her brother, Sheldon; two sisters, Adleasia and Stefania; her brother-in-law, Juancito; and a host of nephews, nieces, cousins and friends.

No Need To Worry, No Need To Cry

No need to worry, no need to cry nor question God and wonder why. My heart's at peace you're wondering how because my soul is with Jesus and I'm resting now. The services I gave for my family and friends were services of love, even to the end. Loved one's now look to Jesus for He knows best. He carried me home for I needed the rest. Family don't you cry and don't be afraid for me, already a way has been made. Keep trusting in Jesus and doing His will, through Jesus my presence you will always feel. Yes, my heart's at peace and my soul's at rest and you wonder how; it's because I'm with Jesus and I'm resting now. I'm in a better place as long as I'm with Jesus. I'm resting, just like a white dove I've flown away yet. I'm resting now.
