Reflections of Life

Mary Louise King (Boone) was born May 15, 1928 in Jackson, North Carolina to the late William Henry and Carrie Anthony Boone.

She accepted Christ at an early age and joined the Mount Hope Baptist Church and after moving to Paterson, New Jersey she joined the membership of the Christ Temple Baptist Church.

Mary attended Coates High School in Seaboard, North Carolina and also received certification as a PBX operator. She was employed as a seamstress until retirement in 1990.

Mary met and married the late Wilbert King in 1951 and shared forty-seven blissful years.

Her favorite past times she enjoyed were listening to gospel music, shopping, cooking for her family, friends and the social gatherings at the "Atrium."

We will always remember her full of smile and laughter, and ending a joyful conversation with her favorite phrase "you're telling me".

Mary was preceded in death by her husband, Wilbert King, two sisters, Frances Williams and Rebie Boone and one brother, William Boone.

Mary Louise King departed this life on Thursday, February 24, 2011 at the Atrium in Wayne, NJ.

Mary leaves to cherish her fond memories: her three children, Calvin Lynn King, Sylvia King and Wilburt King, Jr. all of Paterson, NJ; grandchild, William Anthony; sister, Ruth Clanton of Jackson, North Carolina; sisters-in-law, Fannie Garris of Paterson, NJ and Annie Rascoe of Irvington, NJ; brothers-in-law, Alphonso King of New York, NY and Roy King of Teaneck, NJ; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

"Together Again"

Palm 23

The Lord is My Shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures; He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul. He leadeth me in the path of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies. Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.
