Obituary

Helen Redmond was born in New York, NY to the proud parents of Robert and Victoria Seabrook on October 20, 1937. Helen was the middle child. She had an older sister named Helen and a younger brother named Leroy, who are both deceased.

Education was very important to Helen; she was a lifetime student. She attended Washington Irving High School. But she received her High School Diploma from Commerce. Helen went on to receive her Bachelors Degree from Medgar Ever College. She graduated Cum Laude. Helen always pushed her children, grandchildren and those around her to pursue a higher education and to never stop learning.

Helen was an Accounts Payable/Receivable Manager for the Health and Hospital Corporation. She had a strong work ethic and she encouraged those around her to work hard as well. As hard as Helen worked she also took the time to enjoy things like traveling, going to museums, going to restaurants, seeing plays, spending time with friends, visiting Showman's and making trips to Atlantic City. Her lust for life and the desire to do fun and new things was passed down to her children and grandchildren.

Helen leaves behind: five daughters, Vicki, Shari, Kimi, Doreen and Susan "Bunny"; five grandchildren, Shawne, Simone, She-A, Victoria "Ria" and Shane; and one great grandchild, Shawn-Paul; a host of aunts, uncles, cousins, one niece, one nephew and friends.

God our Father,
Your power brings us to birth,
Your providence guides our lives,
and by Your command we return to dust.

Lord, those who die still live in Your presence,
their lives change but do not end.
I pray in hope for my family,
relatives and friends
and for all the dead known to You alone.

In company with Christ,
Who died and now lives,
may they rejoice in Your kingdom,
where all our tears are wiped away.
Unite us together again in one family,
to sing Your praise forever and ever.

Amen.

"Mommy I will always love you, everything I am is because of you and I will continue to be the woman you raised me to be. You will live on through me, you are my Hero.

Love Bunny
