Reflections of Life

Carrie B. Page born in Marion County, South Carolina to George and Lou Moody. She was the eldest of six children, Gus, George Jr., Alene, Willie and Rachel. She attended the local community schools.

She was wedded to Elijah Page on Christmas day December 25, 1937. God blessed her with eight children. She was a faithful member of her local church "Singletary A.M.E." in Marion, South Carolina.

She raised her children and relocated to Paterson, New Jersey in 1957. Sam and Mae Saewitz employed her for many years. During her middle life her joy was raising and mentoring her grandchildren.

Her passions were cooking and socializing (talking on the phone) with her friends and church family, especially Dot and aunt Mamie. Because of her strong faith in "God Almighty" she found her calling in servicing her community as director of her church's food pantry and as a ordained deacon and usher.

Carrie was preceded in death by her parents, George and Lou, brothers, Gus, George Jr. and Willie.

Carrie departed this life on Thursday, March 24, 2011, in the home of family, surrounded by her children and grandchildren.

She is survived by five generations of family: siblings, Virginia (Marion), Elijah (Joan), Willie (Gloria) and Susan and Jimmie all of Paterson, NJ, Lula of Matthews, NC, James of Tampa, FL, Betty of Detroit, MI and Herman of Dallas, Texas; sisters, Alene of Marion, SC and Rachel (Carl) of Medina, OH; sisters-in-law, Mamie Beatty of Newark, NJ and Rebecca Moody of Florence, SC; brother-in-law, Will Page of Conway, SC; nineteen grandchildren; many great grandchildren and many great great grandchildren; many nieces, nephews, cousins and friends; her wonderful Health Aid, Minnie Askew, The Hospice Nurses, Karen and Lisa from Passaic Valley Hospice and Visiting Health Services of New Jersey; and devoted and special friends, John and Dot Reed.
