Obituary

Cheree E. Traylor was born on November 19, 1968 in the Bronx, New York to Carol Traylor-Green and the late Geoffrey Wilson.

Cheree was educated throughout the New York City Public School system in the Bronx, New York.

Her grandmother, Agnes Wilson and her husband raised Cheree. Agnes and her husband spoiled Cheree rotten. She got her hair done every week at the beauty parlor she always had a new outfit to wear to school everyday on top of unconditional love and affection.

When Cheree's mother, Carol asked if she would like to give her back Mrs. Wilson nearly had a heart attack at the thought of losing Cheree, she was her pride and joy.

She was the only girl in the house of her three uncles, Bryant, Bret and Leslie. She had a lot of protection being that she was the only girl; everyone knew not to mess with her. Cheree also had one more uncle, Johnny Wilson although he did not live in the same household. Cheree was also very dear to him.

In 1986, Cheree gave birth to CheKoya not soon after she gave birth to Ernesha and lastly Carl Jr.

Cheree moved to the Raleigh, North Carolina for a slower pace of life. Soon after making the move she attained employment at Saving Grace Group Home.

She was preceded in death by one sister, Tanya Traylor.

Cheree leaves to mourn: her mother, Carol Traylor-Green; three sisters, Shona V. Traylor, Tyese and Danielle; two daughters, CheKoya and Ernesha; one son, Carl, Jr.; two grandchildren, Harmony and Zoey; four uncles, Johnny, Bryant, Leslie and Bret; aunt, Gail Potter; cousins, Aminah, Nicole, Vita, Scott, Daryl and many others; nieces, Sierra and Teona; nephews, Kyle, Thomas and Todd; step-mother, Susan Smith, step-brothers, Terrance, Harold and Kenny; her long time companion, Carl James, Sr.; many friends and loved ones in the community in which she was raised (Forest Houses).

Psalm 23

The Lord is My Shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures; He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul.

He leadeth me in the path of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies. Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.
