Reflections of Life

Ora Bell Coleman known as "Sue" was born on September 5, 1913 in Henry County, Alabama and went to be with the Lord on Wednesday, April 27, 2011. Sue received her formal education through the Henry County Public School System.

Sister Sue accepted Christ as her Lord and Savior with Metropolitan Baptist Church of Newark, New Jersey, where she served as a faithful member who truly loved the Lord.

Sue left Alabama in 1940 and made Newark, New Jersey her home. She was employed by Reynold's Metal Company in Harrison, New Jersey, where she served dutifully for eighteen years before going into business for herself as a seamstress for over thirty years.

For ninety-seven years, Sue was truly a blessing to all. She loved the Lord, her family, friends and New York Mets. Sue was preceded in death by her father, mother, daughter, Trudie Mae Gray, beloved sister, Annie Mae Kinder; four brothers, Zeke Coleman, George Coleman, Rubin Coleman, Curly Thorton and grandson, Dino Gray.

She leaves behind to cherish her memory: one daughter, Jetta M. Clark; grandchildren, Sabrina D. Gray, Joetta Clark Diggs, Joe "JJ" Clark and Kimberly J. Gray; ten great grandchildren, several great-greatgrand children; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other loving relatives and friends.

From the family of Ora Bell "Sue" Coleman

*God saw that you were very tired
And knew that you had earned a rest:*

You followed His Command

You passed His every test.

Yes, he knew you loved your family

And how much they loved you too;

But your job here on earth was through.

God wanted another Angel up in Heaven

To help guide and point the way

That is why He sent His chariot

To bring you home today.

You could not say good-bye to all, time did not permit

It would have taken much too long so He said,

"Come on home now, this is it"

With a soft wind blowing and sunny skies above

He reached down and gently closed your eyes.

Acknowledgements

The family of Ora Bell "Sue" Coleman

gratefully acknowledges with sincere appreciation your many kind expressions of love, support, kindness, comforting messages and prayers during this time.

May God forever bless and keep you in His care.
