Afterglow

I'd like the memory of me

To be a happy one,

I'd like to leave an afterglow

Of smiles when day is done.

I'd like to leave an echo

Whispering softly down the ways,

Of happy times and laughing times

And bright and sunny days.

I'd like the tears of those who grieve

To dry before the sun

Of happy memories that I leave behind,

When the day is done.

-Helen Lowrie Marshall

Life Reflections

The Lord blessed this world with Elouise “Nanny” Green on February 4th 1922, on the West Coast of Florida. She was born to the late Hattie Mae Burley and George Dale and raised by her beloved stepfather, John Green.

In her youth, Elouise attended and graduated from Industrial High School in West Palm Beach, Florida. There she excelled as a star athlete, eventually earning All-State honors in basketball. Off of the court she spent her time cooking and taking care of her younger family members.

As a young adult, she enjoyed going dancing. Elouise could be found doing the “Lindy Hop” with her childhood friends, the late Robert L. Bragg and Deloree “Aunt Tee” Stargell. “Aunt Tee” would later introduce her to her future husband, the late Lemerrow Green, Sr. who gave her her nickname “Kitty”. Elouise would marry Lemerrow in 1939 and through this union they would have three children, Lemerrow, Jr., Patricia and Cordell to whom they dedicated their lives.

The Greens relocated their family to Rahway, New Jersey in the early 1940’s. While residing in Rahway, she worked as a seamstress as well as an in home caregiver. For a short time she also worked on a naval base.

She later became an integral part in the foundation of Holy Mountain Church of God in Christ. There she served on the Deaconess Board, the Mothers Board, the Pastors Aid Committee and the Kitchen Committee.

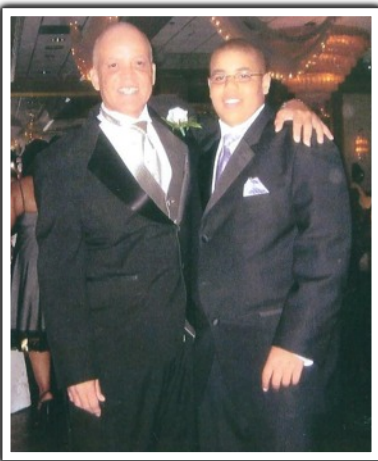

Elouise will be remembered for her commitment to God, her sense of humor and her stylish wardrobe.

She was predeceased by her husband, Lemerrow Green, Sr., a sister, Helen Wilson and grandson, Kevin Charles Green.

She leaves to celebrate her memory: her three children, Lemerrow Green, Jr. and wife, Barbara, Patricia Coston and husband, Fred and Cordell Green; two sisters-in-law, Deloree Stargell and Gladys Bragg; her eight grandchildren, Tonya and Richard, Shawn and Edward, Latara, Tonita and Irwin and Renisha; thirteen great grandchildren, Zamis, Shamai (Mai-Mai), Niya (Me-Me), Syrron, Aysia, Hanif, Niari, Jelese, Zaire, Chevoyne, Nisani, Miguel and Zaurian (Nook); granddaughter-in-law, Donnette and dearest Antoinette Brister (Aunt Toni); along with a host of other family members and friends.

“God has blessed me with another year. If I don’t make it into another, please don’t cry; just know that I made it in.”
