

Wilma and Joseph Together Again

*Those we love are never really lost to us.
We feel them in so many special ways-
Through friends they always cared about and dreams they left behind.
In beauty that they added to our days...
In words of wisdom we still carry with us and memories that never will be gone...
Those we love are never really lost to us-
For everywhere their special love lives on.*

Life Reflections

Wilma Womack Liuga was born on July 5, 1932 in Van Wyck, South Carolina. She was the daughter and only child of the late Ruth Massey Womack and the late Madison Womack. As a toddler they moved to Roselle, New Jersey where she would spend her life.

Throughout her life Wilma grew up surrounded by a very strong family environment. She was educated in the Roselle school system and graduated from Abraham Clark High School in 1950.

On September 29, 1979, Wilma joined in holy matrimony to Joseph Liuga. Wilma and Joe loved spending time at the park and at the beach, and they often took long drives to Wildwood, NJ. They remained happily married until he predeceased her on April 7, 2007.

Wilma was employed by the National State Bank in Elizabeth for ten years. After leaving the bank, she was employed by the Borough of Roselle in 1984. Wilma took great pride in her work and made lifelong friends while employed there. She worked in the Municipal Court as Deputy Court Administrator until she retired.

Wilma, a ray of God’s sunshine, was a faithful Christian and a lifetime member of Heard AME Church and she loved her church family. She was steadfast in her beliefs and love of the Lord. Wilma was a member of the Ladies Guild and the Senior Choir, and she knew what it meant to be truly blessed.

Wilma loved life. All who knew her remember her gentle heart, warm personality and smile. She always greeted others with kind words and compliments. Wilma was a “LADY” in every sense of the word. She was graceful, gracious and very kind to everyone she knew. Wilma was beautiful inside and out. Wilma, or “Aunt Wilma” as she is affectionately known by many children gave them all unconditional love and treated them like her own.

Throughout her life she possessed a positive spirit. Even after she fell ill she maintained a positive outlook and provided comforting words to her love ones. Wilma Liuga departed this life peacefully at home on Tuesday, May 3, 2011 at the age of 78.

She leaves to cherish her memory: a stepdaughter, Sandi Mackenzie; three grandchildren, Dylan, Taylor and Jake of Jackson, NJ; a special sister, Lucille Massey of Roselle; special brothers, Fred Westbrook, Vineland, NJ, Fred Packwood of Roselle, NJ and Fred Aubrey of Neptune, NJ; an uncle, David Hancock (Delores) of Melville, NY; cousins, Etta Webster, Olean Hall (Dewey), Noretta Brown and AC Massey (Mary Jane), Reggie Massey (Susan), Rita Flowers (Alex), Sharon Frazier, Christine Bean and Marva Womack, Hazel Walker, Carolyn Williams, Arvetta Farmer, Arlene Carmichael, Helen Boyd and Mary Hurling; her long time devoted friends, Johnnye Boyd, Bernice Quarless and Loreda Berry; and a host of nieces, nephews, great nieces and nephews and many friends.

Love Can Never Die

One must go and one be left the lonely road to tread, there comes a day when all must face the path that lies ahead. Knowing that the best is over with a loved one gone, there seems no point in going on. But time is kind, the passing years their balm of healing brings, and like a bird at winter’s end their heart begins to sing.

We come at last to realize death breaks the earthly tie, But love survives when grief has passed for love can never die

Lovingly and Sorrowfully,
The Family
