George Franklin Fountain was born on December 12, 1944 in Queens, New York. He was the third child to the late Melvin Jerome and Lucinda Fountain.

He attended public school in Queens, New York and graduated from Thomas Edison High School. After school, George joined the Army on October 26, 1965. He spent two years in the Vietnam War as a medic.

He was married to Jean Moten and they were blessed with one daughter, Felicia Florence Quionquion.

George was employed at the Singer Sewing Machine Company for years. He left there and worked at Elmhurst Dairy for thirty six (36) years.

His favorite pastimes were fishing and bowling. He always loved to tell stories about the old times, his family, the Vietnam War and Elmhurst Dairy. George was a friendly, quiet kind of guy that always kept to himself. He was an all-around handyman that could fix or put together anything.

George is survived by: his daughter in love, Felicia F. Quionquion; his son-in-law, Jean-Luc Quionquion; his grandchildren, Jean-Luc Jr., Regina, Samuel and Alexandra; his wife, Jean Fountain; sister-in-law, Joan; and a host of other relatives and friends.

Footprints

One night a man had a dream. He dreamed he was walking along the beach with the LORD. Across the sky flashed scenes from his life. For each scene, he noticed two sets of footprints in the sand; one belonged to him, and the other to the LORD. When the last scene of his life flashed before him, he looked back at the footprints in the sand. He noticed that many times along the path of his life there was only one set of footprints. He also noticed that it happened at the very lowest and saddest times in his life. This really bothered him and he questioned the LORD about it. "LORD, you said that once I decided to follow you, you'd walk with me all the way. But I have noticed that during the most troublesome times in my life, there is only one set of footprints. I don't understand why when I needed you most you would leave". The LORD replied, "My precious, precious child, I love you and I would never leave you. During your times of trial and suffering, when you see only one set of footprints, it was then that I carried you".
