Obituary

“For I am now ready to be offered and the time of my departure is at hand. I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith.” (II Timothy).

On Saturday May 7, 2011 at 6:10 p.m., an angel came and took Maurice Edward Davis hand and said the time has come for you to get your wings.

Maurice Edward Davis was born December 30, 1940 to the late Harvey Davis Sr. and Ardell Davis of Richmond, VA. He was educated in the Virginia Public School Systems and afterwards relocated to Orange, New Jersey in the early 1960's. Maurice met Rena Garvin in 1996 and then married two years later. They were married for thirteen years until his untimely death.

Maurice was employed and worked at Noland Tire Company, Orange Storage, Job Decamp Moving Company and finally Lincoln Storage for twenty-five years, where he retired.

Maurice leaves to cherish his memory: his loving wife of thirteen years, Rena Davis; one son, Curtis Blunt; one step-daughter, Jaquiah Garvin; one mother-in-law, Rebecca Garvin; two grandchildren, Keir Blunt and Marcus Blunt; two sisters, Gail Davis, Pamela Davis and was preceded in death by two sisters, Jean Matthew and Shirley Davis; one brother-in-law, Luis Matthew; three brothers, Harvey Davis Jr., Albert Davis and Reginald Davis; four sisters-in-law, Marion Davis, Delores Garvin, Aliyah Garvin, and Faye Garvin, Ricky Davis and Theresa Davis; along with a host of other nephews, nieces, aunts, uncles, cousins and friends.

Maurice was loved dearly by all who knew him.

Miss Me, But Let Me Go

*When I come to the end of the road and the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom filled room,
Why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little-but not too long,
and not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that we once shared,
Miss me-but let me go.
For this is a journey that we all must take,
And each must go alone.
It's all part of the Master's plan,
A step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick at heart,
Go to the friends we know.
Laugh at the things we use to do
Miss me-but let me go.*
