Obituary

James Donoghue born to Elmina and James Donoghue in Trinidad on April 28, 1918. He was a Draftsman and a Master Carpenter. He met the love of his life, Sylvia Valentine they were married and from that union they had five children.

He migrated to the United States and became a citizen. He started his own business as a licensed contractor. Most of his work came from recommendations he always stated no need to advertise, work speaks for itself.

James enjoyed boxing, baseball, wrestling, playing cards, barbeques, parties and holiday gatherings. Especially Christmas at the Donoghue's where he enjoyed all his grands, great grands and great great grands. He also enjoyed his calypso dancing and was always the life of the party.

James is survived by: four daughters, Lenora Banks, Angela Carty, Annette Moorehead and Rubina Siler; one son, Adolphus Donoghue; four nephews; thirteen grandchildren; thirty great grandsons; twenty-one great granddaughters; and a host of friends.

When I Must Leave You

*When I must leave you for a little while
Please do not grieve and shed wild tears
And hug your sorrow to you through the years
And for my sake and in my name
Feed not your loneliness on empty days
But fill each waking hour in useful ways
Reach out your hand in comfort and in cheer
And I in turn will comfort you and hold you near
And never, never be afraid to die
For I am waiting for you in the sky!*
