Obituary

One needs the courage to accept what comes... and the faith to believe that whatever comes is best because God planned it that way. We may not understand but we know that love is never wasted, and that sorrow accepted with bitterness helps us to grow in grace.

Aloysius Terence Whitlow was born on October 25, 1955 in West Point, GA to the proud parents W.T. and Mary Til Whitlow. He was the second eldest son.

Aloysius attended Food and Maritime High School as he had a great desire to become a chef. He was employed at INVESCO Corp. for the past seventeen years as the assistant mailroom supervisor. He had a great passion for dance and performed for various dance companies throughout the years.

He fought a brave and gallant fight to overcome his illness. He departed this life on Sunday, May 15, 2011.

Aloysius was preceded in death by his father, W.T. Whitlow. He is survived by: his mother, Mary Til Whitlow; his brothers, Norman V. Whitlow, Llewellyn I. Whitlow and Derek A. Whitlow; sister, Conchetta M. Whitlow-Powell; three sisters-in-law, Regina A. Whitlow, Regina L. Whitlow and Cheryl R. Whitlow; brother-in-law, Roland E. Powell, Jr.; seven nieces, Generra Whitlow, Serena Whitlow, Leila Whitlow, Genaiya Whitlow, Shanece Powell, Savina Whitlow and Sierra Whitlow; one nephew, Terrelle Powell; Mr. & Mrs. MacArthur Whitlow of Port Washington, MD, Mrs. Dorothy Brooks of Washington, D.C., Mr. & Mrs. Willie Frank Whitlow of East Point, GA and Mrs. Mattie Joe McCullough of Queens, NY; a special friend, Mr. Robert Cortez who was with him from the beginning until the end; and a host of other relatives and friends. He leaves six parakeets, eight gold fish; and numerous beautiful plants which he loved and cared for.

I'm

Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call*

I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day.

*To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.*

If my parting has left a void,

Then fill it up with remembered joy.

A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,

Oh, yes these things I too will miss.

*Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.*

My life's been full, I savored much.

Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,

Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.

Lift up your heart and share with me,

God wanted me now, He set me free!
