Obituary

Sam Glass was born June 17, 1938 to the late McArthur and Hattie Hall Glass in Ellaville, Georgia. He was educated in the Buena Vista, Georgia Public School system. He migrated to New York in 1960.

He owned his own furniture refinishing business for over forty years until his retirement. He enjoyed his retirement years reading, socializing and entertaining friends at 217th Jamaica Lodge.

On Sunday morning, May 15, 2011 at 2:26 a.m., a light flickered, that was the passing of Sam Glass.

In passing, he leaves to mourn: his wife of fifty years, Dorothy Glass of Cambria Heights, NY; two sons, Samuel L. Glass (Geraldine) and Elzie C. Glass of Queens, NY; two daughters, Priscilla (who preceded him in death) and Connie F. Royal of Buena Vista, GA; five granddaughters, Natalie, Nicole, Dominique, Saquesa and Jamila; two grandsons, Nicholas and Furman; ten great grandchildren; four sisters, Joanne (Jimmy) Little of Brooklyn, NY, Ressie (Arthur) Radney of Buena Vista, GA, Shirley Glass Napper of Brooklyn, NY, Lee A. (Robert) Johnson of Brooklyn, NY; four sisters-in-law, Agnes (Willie) Bennett of Brooklyn, NY, Beverly (Curtis) Bason of Macon, GA, Mary (Moses) Brewington of Atlanta, GA, Renee Michelle Glass of Buena Vista, GA; one brother-in-law, Robert Dixon of Buena Vista, GA; two aunts, Emma Jean Jackson of St. Petersburg, FL and Gloriteen Hall of Buena Vista, GA; and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

"Sam you are not gone, your spirit will live in us until we meet again."

Miss Me, But Let Me Go

*As I come to the end of the road and the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom filled room,
Why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little-but not too long,
and not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that we once shared,
Miss me-but let me go.
When you are lonely and sick at heart,
Go to the friends we know.
Bury your sorrow in doing good deeds,
Miss me-but let me go.
For this is a journey that we all must take,
And each must go alone.
It's all part of the Master's plan,
A step on the road for home.*
