Reflections of Life

Delores Phillips, age 63, was born March 12, 1948 in Bishopville, South Carolina to Jack Johnson and the late Mary Ruth Simon and raised and nurtured by the late Helen Simon. She resided in Paterson, New Jersey most of her life. Delores departed this life on Wednesday, May 25, 2011.

Delores retired from Summit Bank. She then worked at the Gilmore Memorial Day Care for four years as an Assistant Social Worker.

She was preceded in death by one of her best friends, Brenda Tolbert , who was like a sister to her.

She leaves to cherish fond memories: her devoted son, Antonio Phillips; her loving daughter, Kimberly Phillips; sisters, Ernestine Jenkins, Annie Mae Johnson, Jannett Davis Bradford, Josephine Baker, and Vanessa Simon; brother, Murry (Bozy) Bradley; grandchildren, Antonio Hough and Kennedy Phillips; and a host of cousins, nieces, nephews, and friends.

Remember Me

*To the living, I am gone,
To the sorrowful I will never return,
I am at peace with myself and the Lord,
I cannot speak, but I can listen
I cannot be seen but I can be heard,
So remember me in your heart and thoughts,
Remember me in your memories,
Remember me of the times we loved,
Remember me of the times we laughed,
Remember me of the times we cried,
Remember me of the times we fought
And always remember me of the times we lived together.
I am resting in peace with the highest hope that some day we shall all unite again in God's Kingdom.*
