Obituary

Inez Thomas was born in Clover, Virginia on May 13, 1936. She was the second of three children.

Inez met Roger Coleman and they were married in 1952. From this union one child was born, Patricia Diane Coleman. Due to having a child at such a young age she was not able to finish school formally but was able to finish her education later in life. Inez remarried in 1976 to Charles Thomas and they would spend the rest of their lives together.

Inez worked as a file clerk in St. Clare's Hospital, she also was a bartender for Cecil's Lounge, The Hide-away and M&S Frontline. She was a very sociable person who made a lot of friends and acquaintances through her work. Her real passions were cooking and traveling. She collected recipes and made many dishes for her friends and family. She had also traveled to places like London, Bermuda and Puerto Rico.

Inez touched many lives and will surely be missed. She is survived by: one grandson, Christopher Coleman; one great grandson, K'shawn Clausell; one niece, Reddie Mitchell; two nephews, Allen Mitchell and Marvin Mitchell. She was preceded in death by her sisters, Evelyn Royster and Beatrice Mitchell and her daughter, Diane Coleman. She leaves behind a long list of family and friends who will always love and miss her dearly.

No Time For Sad Remembrances

There's no time for sad remembrances
Because I'm home where I belong
I've conquered all my battles,
I've even heard the trumpet's song.
I've climbed my highest mountain
And I've reached an even peak,
And I've found that peace and true reward
That you have yet to seek.

There's no time for sad remembrances
For you have a precious life;
So find comfort in my journey
Please don't bear this pain and strife.
Oh! My Father's house is perfect
Just like He said it would be,
So dry your tears
Because I'm home and now I'm free.
I am part of all the beauty
That your world has yet to see;
So don't be sad about my journey,
Just be glad that I am free!
