Reflections of Life

Idris Denmark, age 27, died May 29, 2011.

He was born on January 31, 1984, in Newark, NJ to Anita Denmark and Thomas Moore. He attended Quitman Street Elementary School and Central High School. Idris grew up on Howard Street and Irvine Turner Blvd. He played baseball for Pop Warner.

His interests included family, spending time working on cars and restoring old bikes which he gladly shared with the kids in the neighbourhood. He was generous to family and friends making sure they were taken care of. He would help anyone in need. Idris had a rare taste for exotic animals, such as snakes, iguanas and lizards. He would purchase these pets and place them in the largest tanks possible to put them on display. He was known for carrying them outside to show off to neighbours. He received so much joy as he explained them to people advising what they eat, how they sleep and what they can do. He loved dogs and training them too.

Idris is survived by: his mother, Anita Denmark; father, Thomas Moore; sister, Anita (JuJu); brothers, George and Eddie Denmark, Haneef, Omar, Lamar, Mookie and Darrin; grandmother, Gloria McClain; grandfather, Eddie Denmark; three aunts, Beverly, Keisha and Robin; four nephews, Samaad, Haneef, Coree and Little Darrin; three nieces, Zariyah, Sanaa and Saniyah; uncles, Darrin and Thomas (Man-Man); special friend, Tahmeka; step-daughter, Nyeaihjah; great aunt, Deloris Oliver; sister-in-law, Nashina; and a host of other family members and friends.

He was preceded in death by his uncle, Andrea McClain, great grandmother, Alma Pender and two dear cousins, Donald (Papa) and Gregory.

*When Tomorrow
Starts
Without Me*

*When tomorrow starts without me, and I'm not there to see if the sun should rise and find your eyes, all filled with tears for me.
I wish so much you wouldn't cry, the way you did today, while thinking of the many things, we didn't get to say.*

*I know how much you love me, as much as I love you, and each time that you think of me, I know you'll miss me too.
But when tomorrow starts without me, please try to understand that an angel came and called my name, and took me by the hand and said, "my place was ready, in heaven far above and that I'd have to leave behind, all those I dearly love."
But when I walked through heaven's gates, I felt so much at home.
When God looked down and smiled at me,
from His great golden throne.*

*He said "This is eternity, and all I've promised you."
Today for life on earth is past, but here it starts anew.
I promise no tomorrow, for today will always last.
And since each day's the same way, there's no longing for the past.
So when tomorrow starts without me, don't think we're far apart.
For every time you think of me, I'm right here in your heart.*
