Obituary

Hattie Mae Anderson was born on December 15, 1928 in Bainbridge, GA to the late Leroy Anderson and Cathy Lee Douglas Anderson. Hattie departed this life on May 29, 2011. She moved to Newark, NJ at an early age to live with her Aunt Elise Anderson Adams and Uncle Leander Adams. She attended the Newark Public Schools, Charlton Street Elementary and Southside High Schools.

She was employed at Tung-Sol Electric Company from 1950 to 1960. In 1960, she attended and graduated from Scott's Beauty Culture School which allowed her to open a hair salon.

Hattie married William Robinson in 1953; there were no children from this union but she has been known to some as a mother figure and to all as an aunt. She enjoyed working with young children at the Northward Child Development Center.

Hattie was converted at an early age and joined Israel Memorial A.M.E. Church in 1940. In her later years she joined Unity Freedom Baptist Church and became a dedicated member of the Nurses' Aide Society where she remained active until her death.

She loved her family and friends; she also loved the joy of laughing and reflecting on the good times she shared with them. Hattie is survived by: her aunt, Lessie Crawford; uncle, Otis Douglas of Climax, GA; god-son, Bruce Adams; cousins, Doris Hainsworth (Squire), Helen Martin (James), Marilyn Ayo, Connie Johnson (Eddie), Leander Adams, Jr. (Ruby) and Matthew Howard; closest and dearest friends, Jackie Williams, Jean Sampson and Cherry Beaufort; and a number of cousins and host of other friends.

Safely Home

*I am home in Heaven, dear ones; Oh, so happy and so bright!
There is perfect joy and beauty in this everlasting light.
All the pain and grief is over, Every restless tossing passed;
I am now at peace forever, Safely home in Heaven at last.
Did you wonder I so calmly trod the valley of the shade?
Oh! But Jesus' love illumined every dark and fearful glade.
And He came Himself to meet me in that way so hard to tread;
And with Jesus' arm to lean on, could I have one doubt or dread?
Then you must not grieve so sorely, for I love you dearly still:
Try to look beyond earth's shadows, pray to trust our Father's Will.
There is work still waiting for you, so you must not idly stand;
Do it now, while life remaineth - you shall rest in Jesus' land.
When that work is all completed, He will gently call you Home:
Oh, the rapture of that meeting, Oh, the joy to see you come!*

Acknowledgement

*Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair.
Perhaps you sent a floral piece If so, we saw it there.
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words as any friend could say.
Perhaps you were not there at all just thought of us on that day.
Whatever you did to console our hearts, We Thank You, Whatever the part.*
