Obituary

John M. Stump, Sr. was born on March 6, 1937 in Harrisburg, Pennsylvania to the late Walter Edward Stump and Bertha Stump. He attended William Penn High School up until June of 1953 and began his life long career as a window cleaner. In 1955, John went on to join The United States Air Force where he remained until he was Honorably Discharged in 1958.

After leaving the military, he went back to Harrisburg and continued his job as a window cleaner until 1960 when he came to New York City, he joined the Window Cleaner's Union Local 2 and continued washing the city's skyscrapers until his retirement in 1999. After retiring from his city job, Jay opened his own business J.M. Stump Cleaning where he worked diligently until he went into the hospital on May 2, 2011.

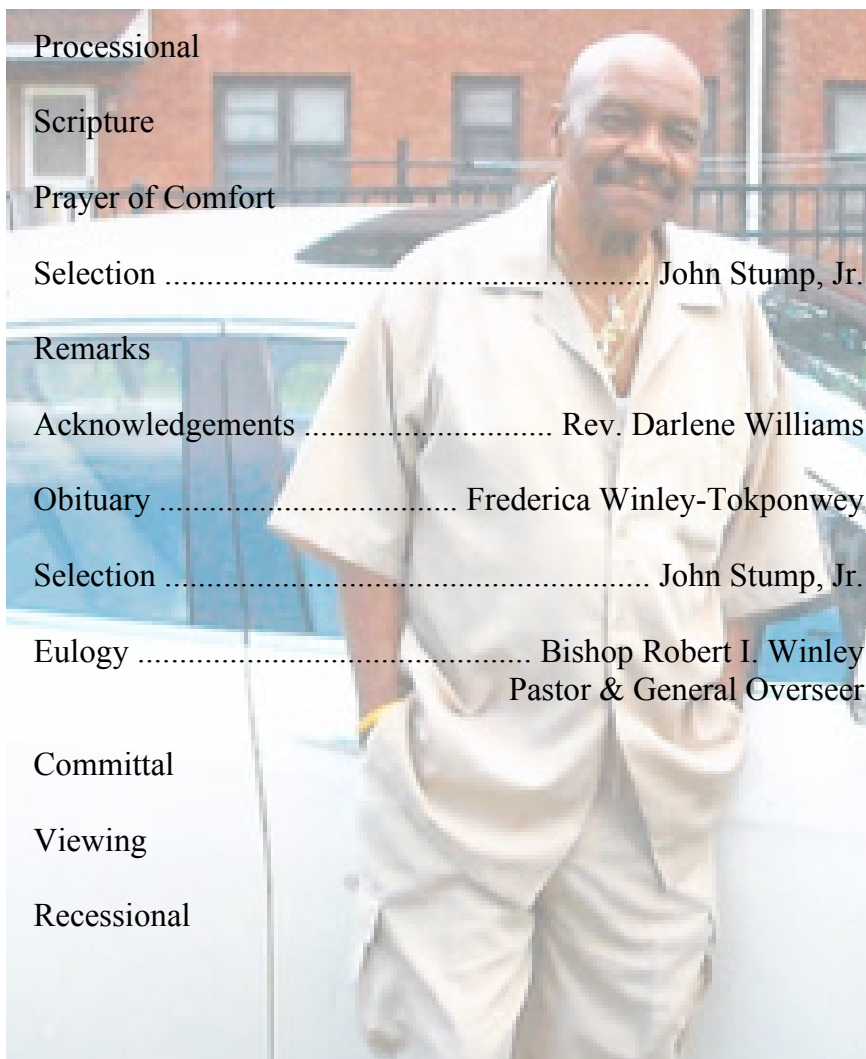

“Jay”, as he was affectionately called by many and to others “Cowboy” because of his love for cowboy hats and boots, also dabbled a little with painting and has several paintings in his collection.

Jay became a member of From The Heart Ministries of Harrisburg Church in October 2010, where his two oldest children attend. On May 10, 2011, Jay accepted Christ as his Lord and Savior.

After a short battle with pancreatic cancer, Jay was called home to be with His Lord and Savior Jesus Christ on June 2, 2011.

He leaves to cherish his memory: his children, Camillia of Harrisburg, PA, John M. Stump, Jr. (Sherdina) of Stilton, PA, Cammy Fleming of Williamsport, PA, Darryl Simmons of New York, NY, Chris Day of York, PA, Yaffascha Jackson (Raymond) of Elmont, NY and Jason Williams of Far Rockaway, NY; two step-children, Shaun Jefferies of Charlotte, NC and Cherisse Jefferies of Queens, NY; one godson, Lance M. Williams of Queens, NY; one brother, John Eugene Kelly (Bessie) of Harrisburg, PA; two sisters, Bertha (George) of Harrisburg, PA and Gladys (George) of Harrisburg, PA; companion, Sandra Johnson; twenty-one grandchildren; eight great grandchildren; and a host of family and friends.

My Farewell

Our family circle has been broken link has gone from our chain;

But though we are parted for a while,

We know we will meet again.

Sometimes it's hard to understand why certain things must be,

but there is a reason for it all, beyond our power to see.

The cover of life's book is closed for one we loved so well;

But the loving deeds of

by-gone days are what the pages tell.

The blow was hard, the shock severe;

We never thought your death was so near.

But only those who have lost can tell

The pain of parting without farewell.
