Obituary

Delores Dekle was the youngest of five children born to the late Julian and Anna Brown on January 9, 1946 in Harlem, NY. She was married to George Dekle of which they produced two children; their daughter, Monique and their late son, David Dekle who took his journey home in 2004 and has welcomed his mother with open arms as her spirit has made her journey home to be with the Lord on June 24, 2011.

She spent her younger years in St. Charles Catholic School in which she graduated and later went on to complete school at Jane Addams Vocational High School. She was a caring, loving woman who always carried herself with pride and dignity. Also, she was a beautiful woman with a great sense of humor.

Delores is survived by: her daughter, Monique Roberson with her four children (grandchildren) Brian, Dominique, Bianca and Eric, plus granddaughter, Alicia Nicole, daughter of the late David whom Delores was the legal guardian. Seven great grandchildren, Julian, Christina, Bryan, Brenna, Adonis, Hazel and Aliz'e; her two loving sisters, Ms. Anna Mae Cook and Rosa Mae Brown in which they will always have memories of their sister's loving spirit and the great times they shared. Lucrecia, her best friend and sister in family to the end, thank you for your love and support. She is also survived by a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives and friends.

On behalf of the Dekle, Cook, Brown and Roberson families we wish to thank you and acknowledge your kindness, support and prayers during this time of our loss.

Mom I love you, but GOD loves you best! Rest In Peace

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day.
To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.
If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it up with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh, yes these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much.
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free!*
