Obituary

Angelo Lawson was born in the city of Newark to the late Emma Wright and the late Evander McLean on January 5, 1958.

Angelo attended Newark Public Schools. Angelo was always a hard worker in what ever work he was doing, he gave his best.

Angelo loved music, in 1973 he was voted the 3rd Best Bass Player in the city of Newark and became the Master Gelow. Not only did he play the Bass he also sang Bass.

In February 1980, Angelo and Denise met in December 1985 Angelo and Denise said their I do's.

In 1987, Angelo went to school and became a professional Tractor Trailer Driver. In 1989, Angelo went back to the National Guard as a Tanker. He was a Medical Supply Specialist the first time some years earlier.

Because of Denise, Angelo been around the truth for twenty years, but in 2010, Angelo started to make the truth his own up until the day he fell a sleep in death.

He was predeceased by his adopted father, James Wright and his nephew, Jeffery Lawson.

Angelo leaves to cherish his memory: his wife, Denise Lee Lawson of Newark; three children, Kawana Franklin of Newark, Angela Lawson of MS, Charles Lawson of Newark; four grandchildren, Niketta and Anthony Franklin, Sanaa Lawson and Chasity McDaniel; daughter-in-law, Vanessa Lawson; two brothers, Frank Lawson, Sr., Willie of Chicago and Jeffery Lawson of Newark; four sisters-in-law, Dona Byers, Sueann Lee, Debra Lee of Newark and Jennifer Lawson of Chicago; three brothers-in-law, Darnell Lee of PA, Dewayne Lee, Sr. and Tim Byers of Newark; aunts, Mae Chisolum and Yzette Lawson of Newark; uncle, Saleem Lawson of Newark; life-long friend, Fred and Prudence Smith; and a host of other relatives and friends.

My Husband and Friend,

But most of all, to my brother who showed great faith in Jehovah God. A lasting marriage is team work, hard work it gives and it takes. Smile and tear with up's and downs. However when you have the Creator in your marriage and work in harmony with your prayer! Even if one mate should fall asleep in death, the marriage bond through memory will be everlasting. So thank you husband for giving me the honor of being your wife and the privilege of being the mother of your children. Last but not least becoming your sister in the faith.

I will always love you G.

From your wife

Acknowledgement

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair.

Perhaps you sent a floral piece If so, we saw it there.

Perhaps you spoke the kindest words as any friend could say.

Perhaps you were not there at all just thought of us on that day.

Whatever you did to console our hearts, We Thank You, Whatever the part.
