A Tribute of Love In Everlasting Memory of Missionary Cynthia Joy Chatman

To be absent from the body is to be present with the Lord.

I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith. Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord the righteous judge shall give me at that day: and not to me only, but unto all them also that love his appearing.

2 Timothy 4:7-8

This would be the message of our Beloved Sister Chatman if she could speak to us from the portal of heaven, where she has gone to forever be with the Lord.

Missionary Cynthia Chatman was born on February 24, 1957 in Wilson County, Lucama, North Carolina to the late Charlie Chatman and Alberta Battle Chatman of the home. She leaves the legacy of love, gems of wisdom and gifts of spirituality to those who will always cherish her memory. Her darling son, Dawayne who brightened up her life whenever he walked into the room and his friend Bobbie Lou whom she loved; two brothers, Deacon Wayne (Patricia) and Elder Kelvin (Ann) Chatman; three sisters, Sharon Denise (Aaron) Coley, Deborah (Jody) Lawson and Yolane (Robert) Marcano all in New Jersey; one uncle, Gus Battle of Wilson, NC; two aunts, Estell Horton of Portsmouth, VA and Luberta James of Lucama, NC; her one and only goddaughter, Taylor J. Coley of Cliffwood, NJ who she loved as her own; three special friends, Callie Cheatum, Rosemarie "Cookie" Calhoun and Pattie Jones; and a host of cousins, nieces, nephews other relatives and friends.

Missionary Chatman was a faithful member of Holy Mountain COGIC in Rahway, New Jersey under the leadership of Elder Alvin Bragg. Sis. Cynthia heard the good news of the gospel, believed and received the Holy Ghost, early in her life. She demonstrated an unconditional love for people. She befriended those who crossed her path with a smile.

Sis. Chatman graduated from Matawan Regional High School in 1975. She worked at the Carriage House for over thirty years.

Sleep on Cynthia and take your rest we loved you deeply but God loved you best.

“Where Our Sympathy Expresses Itself Through Sincere Service”

*When tomorrow starts without me
And I'm not there to see;
If the sun should rise and find your eyes
All filled with tears for me;*

*I wish so much you wouldn't cry
The way you did today,
While thinking of many things
We didn't get to say.*

*I know how much you love me,
As much as I love you;
And each time that you think of me,
I know you will miss me too.*

*But when tomorrow starts without me,
Please try to understand
That an Angel came and called my name,
And took me by the hand.*

*And said my place was ready,
In heaven far above
And that I'd have to leave behind
All those I dearly love.*

*But when I walked through heaven's gates
I felt so much at home.
When God looked down and smiled at me
From His great golden throne.*

*He said "This is eternity
and all I've promised you"
Today for life on earth is past
But here it starts anew.*

*I promise no tomorrow
For today will always last.
And since each day's the same way,
There's no longing for the past.*

*So when tomorrow starts without me,
Don't think we're far apart,
For every time you think of me,
I'm right here in your heart.*

*When
Tomorrow
Starts
Without Me*
