Obituary

Thomas Lee Keithroy Warner was born on September 22, 1947 on the Caribbean Island of St. Kitts to the union of Ann Hughes and Keithroy Warner. He was educated at the Bethel Moravian School. Soon after completing his school, he migrated to St. Thomas, United States Virgin Islands as many people his age was doing at the time. In St. Thomas, he was employed in the tourist industry.

In 1974, “Lee” as he is more affectionately called migrated to New York City where he spent the rest of his life. In New York City he met and married Elizabeth Warner who predeceased him. It was in New York that his children, Charles and Anita were born as well. He was employed for many years in the Garment Industry in Manhattan.

Lee was a very easy going, jovial person who made friends easily and got along with everyone. He especially liked making people laugh and lighten up.

Lee enjoyed the game of baseball passionately and was a big fan of the New York Mets. His eternal regret was not being able to see his beloved homeland of St. Kitts before he died.

Lee did not live a long life –he had sixty-four years. He brought many laughs and comfort to all who knew him. He would be sorely missed by all who knew him and came to love and respect him.

Thomas Lee Warner passed away peacefully on the morning of Thursday, July 7, 2011 at the age of 64.

He is survived by: his mother, Ann Hughes; four brothers, Elvis (Juliet) Hughes in St. Thomas, Virgin Islands, Joseph (Nadeen) Hughes in Michigan, Dr. Sydney Hughes of Merrick, New York and Samuel (Stella) Lawrence of St. Kitts. Lee is also survived by two children namely, Charles Phifer of New York City and Annita Middleton and his special friend, Evette Phifer of Bronx, New York, two aunts, Elizabeth Weeks in St. Thomas and Ruby Saddler in London, England as well as five grandchildren and numerous cousins, nieces and nephews residing in the United States, The Virgin Island, England and Anguilla.

May his soul rest in peace.

Remember Me

To the living, I am gone,
To the sorrowful I will never return,
I am at peace with myself and the Lord,
I cannot speak, but I can listen
I cannot be seen but I can be heard,
So remember me in your heart and thoughts,
Remember me in your memories,
Remember me of the times we loved,
Remember me of the times we laughed,
Remember me of the times we cried,
Remember me of the times we fought
And always remember me of the times we lived together. I am resting in peace with the highest hope that some day we shall all unite again in God's Kingdom.
