Obituary

Carlton O'levy Streetman was born to the late Jettie and Birda Mae Streetman, on April 25, 1944 in Burke County, Georgia.

Levy attended both elementary and high school in Burke County. He later met and married the love of his life, Geneva Jordan in 1966. From this union three children were born, one of which preceded him in death, Carlton Streetman, Jr. In 1970, the Streetmans moved to New York after the birth of their first child.

Levy began working at Peninsula Hospital in 1970, where he faithfully served for over forty-one years until his death.

An outgoing person, with a ready smile, Levy was a loving and caring father and grandfather. He will be deeply missed by family, friends and co-workers.

He leaves to cherish his love and memory: his wife, Geneva; two children, Darrell and Jennifer; daughter-in-law, Deborah; eight grandchildren, Jason, Jermaine, Geneva, Daniel, Jonathan, Natural, Darrell, Jr. and Levy; four brothers, Jettie, Jr. (Mattie), Robert (Mary), Wade and Russell; two sisters, Mattie Francis and Elaine Walker; one god-daughter, Amanda Lawrence; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took His hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day.*

*To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.*

*If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with a remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Ah, yes these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much.*

*Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free.*

Acknowledgements

Perhaps you sang a lovely hymn, perhaps you sent a lovely card, or sat quietly in a chair; perhaps you sent a floral piece if so we saw it there; perhaps you spoke the kind words to help us on this day; perhaps you were not there at all, just thought of us that day. Whatever you did to console our hearts we thank you so much whatever the part.
