Obituary

On November 30, 1981, in Bronx, New York, Alfonzo H. Choice, Jr. and Alda Carter were blessed to bring into this world Alfa Latrice Choice. At her birth came joy, laughter and love to all of those who saw her. She was special to her family especially to her brother, Alfonzo H. Choice III. He shared everything with her and was protective of her.

At the age of seven, Alfa had a battle with cancer, which God blessed her to overcome. During the process, she always kept a smile and a positive attitude. She said to her Grandmother Dallas one day, "I'm not worried because I am not here for myself but God sent me to pray for the other children who are battling with cancer."

Her early education began at PS2, where she started receiving the first of many academic awards for excellence. She went on to St. Margaret Mary School where she received a academic scholarship. She then attended Aquinas High School where she received a full scholarship to Cornell University. At Cornell University in 2003, she received her Bachelors Degree in Biological Sciences. A year later in 2004, she received a Master of Arts in Teaching. She continued to pursue her studies to gain a Doctoring in Education also at Cornell University.

Alfa worked at Cornell University and the Bronx High School of Science. She had such a love for children, her dream was to open a school for children with special needs.

She attended Life Center for many years and under the leadership of Apostle R.L. Jackson.

A Special Letter From Dad

Sugar lumps, my love, my angel you always kept me on my toes. From the first day we met, I ran to the florist, extremely excited and confused, ordered a blue floral arrangement. Ran about four blocks then realized that I did not know what you were. I ran back to the florist. The florist laughed his head off for about five minutes. He then pulled out a bottle of scotch to calm me down, made me an arrangement in yellow and sent me on my way. You were the sweetest little thing. I did my finger and toe count and then checked for the Choice noggin, if you didn't have the long head in the back you would have gotten sent back (you checked out).

You smelled so good, man, I love you! I remember due to a back injury I slept on the floor, your mom would send you in to wake me for work, your legs barely long enough for your feet to touch the floor, you would sit on my head, tell me something baby was it your plan to have a wet pampers every time? These were some of the most sweetest things for me, keep smiling sugar lumps, daddy loves you!

Love, Dad

*Baby Girl, I will always love you!
Love, Mom*

*Baby Sis, I love you always!
