Obituary

Mrs. Pauline Isadore Brown was born February 15, 1946 to the late William and Evelina Brown in Charleston, South Carolina. She was one of five children. Pauline graduated from high school and Bronx Community College. She worked at DMV in New York for twenty years. She was also a license hairdresser and an accountant. She was an excellent cook known for her sweet potatoes pies.

In Charleston, South Carolina, February 13, 1963 she married Elijah Walker and raised their daughter, Karen Brown Byrd. She attended Deliverance Baptist Church in Charleston, South Carolina. She strongly believed in God. She attended various churches in New York, five years in Refugee Temple in New York City.

Her husband preceded her in death March of 2008. Also preceded her in death where her two brothers, William and Julius Brown.

She leaves to cherish precious memories: her daughter, Karen Byrd; her two grandsons, Maurice and Jerrell; her two sisters, Viola Kelly and Albertha Perry; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day.
To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.
If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it up with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh, yes these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much.
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free!*
