Obituary

Jacqueline Louise Palmer-Moses was born in Queens, New York on October 9, 1955 to Sam Jordan and Bernice Dill, who later wed James Palmer.

Jackie's siblings include Richard Fulani, Arlene Dill-Miller, Eileen Dill-Henry (deceased), Vernell Palmer (deceased) Annette Palmer (deceased), Felicia "Fee" Shell (deceased), Leonard "Lenny" Presley, Connie Williams, Patricia "Pat" Palmer and James Palmer, Jr.

Jackie graduated from South Shore High School in Brooklyn, New York and earned an Associate of Arts degree from New York City Technical College of The City University of New York. She married Alexander Moses (deceased) on December 8, (his birthday) 1992. Jackie's civil service career at the New York City Comptroller's Office dated from October 15, 1973 to her passing, under six different comptrollers. She began as an Office Aide/Typist and rose through the civil service ranks to Administrative Manager.

Jackie was a union activist since 1989 and served in several positions. She served as Shop Steward, Delegate, Vice Chairperson and Chairperson of District Council 37, AFSCME, Local 1549. She currently served as Shop Steward of Communications Workers of America, AFL-CIO, Local 1180. Jackie was a member of various committees within the Comptroller's Office, such as Labor/Management's Health & Safety, Career Development & Health Wellness Committee and was a dedicated member of the Quality of Work Life for nineteen years.

Jackie was a member of the Aegis Society Inc. - The African American Civil Service Organization of the Comptroller's Office for several years. She held various positions as Acting Corresponding Secretary and Executive Secretary to the President. She also served as a member of the Fundraising and Refreshment Committees. At the Comptroller's Office she met, worked with and socialized with some of her dearest friends.

Jackie attended New Zion F.B.H. Church in Lawrence, Long Island, New York during her childhood. As an adult she was a member of St. Paul's Community Baptist Church in Brooklyn, New York. Her spirit will always be with her church family.

Jackie's social affiliations were, in addition to her family and church family, her friends and work family. Of her beloved intimates, their presence were presents Jackie cherished.

Jackie departed this life on Wednesday, July 27, 2011, perhaps too early yet not soon. She touched and was touched by many lives. She will surely be missed as she bids us farewell to join her mother, four sisters and nephew, Devonne.

Jackie leaves to commemorate and to celebrate her life her immediate family (specified above), step-father, James Palmer; aunts, Daris Jordan Lucas and Mary Mitchell; uncle, Benjamin Dill; fourteen nephews; twelve nieces; and a host of cousins, other relatives and friends.

Lovingly Submitted,
The Family

Psalm 23

The Lord is My Shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures; He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul. He leadeth me in the path of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies. Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.
