Obituary

Harriet Bolling was born April 6, 1950 to the union of Robert Owen and Mamie Bolling. Harrie was raised by her caring mother, the late Mamie Bolling-Taylor and loving step-father, Claude Taylor.

She attended neighborhood Harlem Schools and soon after her schooling she began to start her family. Her life was filled with many loving and caring family and friends. Residing in the Bronx, she became passionately known as "Grandma" by neighbors and friends. The good virtues and fighting spirit she portrayed were stronger than words can explain. She proved over and over that she loved family more than life itself. Her genuine love for family and friends was celebrated through her family cookouts. Always making sure that someone was at the Park before six a.m. to get the best spot and preparing so much food that it was enough for a cookout in from of the building the next day. Harriet leaves behind many memories of laughs and good times. Her feisty spirit was the true essence of her love for all.

She leaves to mourn the following: her two daughters, Melvina and Avon; her four sons, Tyrone, Ernest, Lawrence and Richard; two daughters-in-law, Tasha and Rosyln; two sons-in-law, Joseph, Sr. and David; twenty grandchildren; eleven great grandchildren; three sisters, Delores, Paula and Shirley; five brothers, Adonis, Anthony, Donald, Douglas and Timothy; three sisters-in-law, Diane, Stacey and Patricia; one godson, Vercelle; and a host of nieces, nephews, extended family members and friends.

Harriet bore her illness with patience and courage-that fighting spirit prevailing right up to the end. She was truly an inspiration to us all. Harriet, in our hearts, we know that you have found peace at last. Your life is a beautiful memory: your absence a silent grief. You now sleep in God's beautiful garden. The sunshine of perfect peace!

Hearts of Many

*All though you could not see
We would look for you
All though you did not walk
We would run for you
When ever you were sad
We would cry for you
When ever you were in pain
We felt it with you
Whenever you were happy
We laughed with you*

*Your shoulder was always steady
Your words were always strong
For every breath that you have taken
We can and will live on*

*So now you may rest
For all that was needed
You have done your best
It's now up to the family
To do the rest*

In Appreciation

The family extends heartfelt thanks to everyone for their kindness in this hour of sorrow.
