Obituary

Daniel “Cat” Ellis was born in New York City’s Harlem Hospital on July 17, 1944. He was the third child of Theodore Ellis and Gertrude Ellis. Daniel will be joining his deceased brothers, Teddy and Charley.

Daniel is survived by: his sisters, Barbara Fuller, Gertrude Ellis, Gloria Smith and Alberta McFadden. He has scores of nieces and nephews who he leaves to cherish his memory: his nephews, Tracy, Frederick, Wesley, Timothy, Russell, Michael, James and Corey. His nieces, Virginia and Diana and Bonnie. As well as his many grand nieces and nephews and his great grand nieces and nephews.

Daniel went to public school in the Bronx. Though he didn’t complete high school he was still highly educated in the art of talking to people. Daniel knew everyone and everyone knew him. Daniel was a kind and friendly soul that walked everywhere. He loved to party and was very charming to the ladies. You never knew where you would see him pop up, but you could be sure when you did see him you were going to hear something funny.

Daniel worked on the docks in New York City. His oldest sister recounts Daniel telling her the funny story of how he fell off the docks into the water. For many years after, until his health got bad Daniel worked on the news truck delivering papers early in the morning.

His final chapter came to a close on August 1, 2011 after making progress from his past hospital visits.

He will be remembered in the hearts of his family and friends.

Psalm 23

The Lord is My Shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures; He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul. He leadeth me in the path of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for

Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies. Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.
