Obituary

Lucius Hollomon Jr., (May 18, 1949 – August 5, 2011)

He was born on May 18, 1949 in South Carolina to Dessie R. Hollomon and Lucius Hollomon, Sr.

Lucius came to New York at the age of 16 to live with his sister, Carole. He met his wife, Connie in the early 70's at Brooklyn Slims (a local Brooklyn bar). They were married for thirty-two years.

Lucius and Connie moved to Queens where he built their home from the ground up. He always had tons of friends and family over while he played the guitar. He loved to party with his sisters and would put on a mean hustle on the dance floor with his sister Estelle. He loved to cook and during family gatherings he would display his vast culinary skills. Everyone knew they could come to Connie and Junior's for music, a home cooked meal, and a good time. He enjoyed playing the guitar, keyboard, and collecting model cars. He had a jovial personality and always had a funny story or joke to tell. At times he was serious and stern. Everyone knew he was a no-nonsense type of guy. He was always willing to give someone a hand, whether it was giving you a place to stay or helping you get a start with a job.

Lucius was employed by the New York City Housing Authority for ten years and worked as a carpenter for over thirty years.

He was the brother of Carole I. Hollomon, Estelle Green, Mary E. Hollomon, the late Louise Hollomon, and Mary Lee Manning. He is survived by his wife, Connie and children, Curtis Berry, Bennie Jenkins, Sydrina Sumpter, Melissa McDonald, Cindy Hollomon, and Gregory Hollomon. He also had eight grandchildren; and a host of nieces and nephews.

Your Spirit Will Live On

All though you are looking down on us from heaven
Your spirit will live on
Through all the loved ones you have left behind
Your spirit will live on
Through every breath we take and all the tears shed
Your spirit will live on
Through the memories of the times we've shared
Your spirit will live on
In all the hard work and everything you put your heart
And soul into
Your spirit will live on
Everyday I live for you and in anything I accomplish
In life
Your spirit will live on
You are deeply missed but through the thought of your Personality and the warmth of your smile
Your spirit will live on
So my dear father lay to rest knowing that you left your
Mark on this world
And through us ALL....
Your spirit will live on
