Her Journey's Just Begun

*Don't think of her as gone away
Her journey's just begun.
Life holds so many facets
This earth is only one.
Just think of her resting From the sorrows and the tears
In a place of warmth and comfort Where there are no days and years.
Think how she must be wishing That we could know today
How nothing but our sadness
Can really pass away
And think of her as living In the hearts of those she touched For nothing loved is ever lost
And she was loved so much.*

Reflections of Life

Pauline Barnes Riley

Pauline was born February 15, 1943 in Hartwell, GA to Alex and Navell Barnes who preceded her in death. She relocated to Cincinnati, Ohio, upon graduating high school and completing one year of college. She later relocated to New Jersey where she met and married her husband James Riley. She lived the remainder of her life in Linden, New Jersey.

On December 5, 1965, Pauline began her career at the Social Security Administration in Newark, New Jersey. She worked there faithfully for forty-five years.

Pauline is survived by her husband, James Riley and her daughters, Carolyn Sue Grimes of Hartwell, GA, and Veronica Riley of Linden, NJ; a son-in-law Wayne Grimes; three grandchildren, Curtis Cobb, Amy Gaines and Lakesha Gaines; three great grandchildren, all of Hartwell, GA. Also, a sister, Sarah Wilkins, of Cincinnati, OH. She was predeceased by her brothers, Haywood and William Barnes and her sister, Marilyn Oglesby. Pauline is survived by two aunts, Ann Johnson and Morlene (James) Lomax and an uncle, Joe Barnes. She also leaves fond memories to a host of sisters-in-law, a brother-in-law, nieces and nephews, cousins, co-workers and all of you.

"Where Our Sympathy Expresses Itself Through Sincere Service"

I Am Always With You

*When I am gone, release me, let me go.
I have so many things to see and do, You mustn't tie yourself to me with too many tears, But be thankful we had so many good years. I gave you my love, and you can only guess how much you've given me in happiness. I thank you for the love that you have shown,
But now it is time I traveled on alone.
So grieve for me a while, if grieve you must, Then let your grief be comforted by trust, that it is only for a while that we must part, So treasure the memories within your heart. I won't be far away for life goes on. And if you need me, call and I will come. Though you can't see or touch me, I will be near And if you listen with your heart, you'll hear All my love around you soft and clear*

~~We are as the wings of a butterfly, bound together with the love of God~~
