Obituary

On June 8, 1977, Sheila Nartey Tokoli and the late Geneva Brown came together and a handsome prince named Kehmine Brown was born on this day.

As a young child growing up, he enjoyed spending time with his family. One of his most favorite hobbies was making jokes and telling real life stories within these jokes. Kehmine enjoyed spending quality time with his grandmother, the late Louise Barmore. After her passing, he kept the family legacy together regardless of the situation, especially at holidays. The time spent with his family was all that mattered to him throughout his life. Kehmine believed that in family life, “love is the oil that eases friction, the cement that binds, and the music that brings harmony.” He was always well dressed and took pride in his appearance.

On March 4, 2010, Kehmine and Shaquana gave birth to a little princess named Imani Brown. He has left behind his second unborn gem, Kehmine Brown. On August 6, 2011, the Almighty Father called Kehmine Brown to his eternal home. He is followed in death by his queen, Ms. Louise Barmore and Mr. Geneva Brown. May their souls rest in peace.

He leaves to cherish his memory: his mother, Sheila Nartey Tokoli; stepfather, Ibrahim Nartey Tokoli; daughters, Imani and Kehmine (unborn) Brown; brothers, William, Shawn, Ahmed and Melquawn; sisters, Liz, Kimberly and Isha; aunts, “Peaches” Woodard, Katie Brown and Grace Hawkins; uncles, De’Angelo Woodard and Jerry Brown; nieces, Keshawna, Qarah and Tianna; nephews, Deshawn, Jav’n, Tyrae, Wesley, Christian and Dandra; fiancée, Shaquana White-Brown; special friends, Genell Thomas and Anderson Ave Family; too numerous cousins, families and friends to be mentioned including the Brown’s, Baker’s and Woodard’s families.

Letter From Heaven

To my Dearest Family
There are some things I'd like to say,
But first of all, to let you know
That I have arrived okay.
I'm writing this letter from heaven,
Here I dwell with God above,
Where there are no more tears of sadness...
There is just eternal love.
Please do not be unhappy
Just because I'm out of sight;
Remember that I am with you
Every morning, noon and night.
The day I had to leave
When my life on earth was through
God picked me up and hugged me
And said "I welcomed you!"

Acknowledgement

The family of Kehmine Brown would like to express their sincerest thanks and gratitude for all the acts of kindness, prayers and calls of condolences we have received during this time of bereavement. You have made our burdens a little easier.
