Obituary

Julia Williams was born on October 12, 1913 to Mr. and Mrs. Edward Williams in the District of Amity, Westmoreland, Jamaica West Indies. She attended St. Leonard's School and Church. Julia migrated to the United States of America in the 70's and resided in Brooklyn, New York, where she worked several jobs. She also lived in Florida and then New Jersey.

Julia "Momma Daisy" loved church and everywhere she resided she would make it her duty to find a church to worship. She deeply loved and adored her family and friends and often would sit and talk about them for hours. Her smile, personality and kindness will never be forgotten.

Julia is survived by: her only daughter, Dolce Griffith; her nieces, Venice, Lelette, Blossom, Mavis and Bee; her nephews, Winston, Carlos, Leslie, Keeling and Cassel; grandsons, Michael, Frank, George, Jr., Hardie and Donald; her grand nieces, Ilene and Vivienne; and a host of great grand and great great grandnieces and nephews, other family members and friends.

She will be sadly missed.....

When Tomorrow Starts Without Me!

When tomorrow starts without me, and I'm not there to see;

*If the sun should rise and find your eyes,
all filled with tears for me;*

I wish so much you would not cry, the way you did today, while thinking of the many things, we didn't get to say.

*I know how much you love me, as much as I love you,
and each time that you think of me, I know you'll miss me too.*

*But when tomorrow starts without me,
please try to understand that an angel came
and called my name, and took me by the hand
and said, "my place was ready, in Heaven far above
and that I'd have to leave all those I dearly love."*

*So when tomorrow starts without me,
don't think we're far apart.*

*For every time you think of me,
I'm right here in your heart.*

appreciation for the kindness and sympathy expressed to them during this time.*
