Rev. Dr. Moise Pierre, Officiating

Lilly was born on January 22, 1947 to the late Fortune Mathieu and Jacquessaint Pierre in Desdunes, Haiti. She was a beautiful, courageous and loving mother and a very much loved aunt, friend and grandmother. She had a heart as big as the heavens that enabled her to be a virtuous woman. She loved to sing for the Lord and aside from that, she was a wonderful seamstress. As the oldest among four brothers and five sisters, Lilly was constantly sought after for wisdom and her logical approach to life. She was a mediator, a business woman and a soldier for Christ along with other things. Lilly never ceased to stress to her nieces and nephews the importance of education and pursuing the Lord. She attended East Orange Church of God and was a maternal figure to everyone around her. Yes, her presence will be severely missed but her spirit, her laughter and her wisdom lives on from generation to generation.

Lilly Pierre is survived by: her three children, Kenol Richemond, Florence Richemond and Bergemanie Richemond; nine brothers and sisters, Mathieu Pierre, Jacqueline St. Louis, Promene Vincent, Marie Yolene Limose, Pierre Jacques Pierre, Elianne Volcy, Mimose Louis, Presley Pierre and Lemont Pierre; many nieces and nephews, great nieces and great nephews; ten grandchildren; other relatives and friends.

Psalm 23

The Lord is My Shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures; He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul. He leadeth me in the path of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies. Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.
