Reflections of Life

James Alonzo Oliver "Lonnie" was born on May 9, 1959 in Paterson, NJ.

Lonnie resided in Paterson all of his life. He was educated in the Paterson Public School system. He was employed at Eva's Village and New Jersey Association on Correction, Paterson.

Everyone that knew Lonnie knew he loved to talk, and he was a person who always liked to analyze things. Like all Oliver men, he was a very good carpenter and could fix anything that was broken. Lonnie loved his family. He always made time for them, and would do anything for anyone that he could even during his sickness. Lonnie was an artist, he played the saxophone and he also was a die hard Eagles fan, but above all he was an avid Fisherman.

He went from labor to reward on August 25, 2011.

Lonnie was predeceased by his mother, Jean Marie Oliver and grandparents, Sterling and Corretta Oliver.

Lonnie is survived by: his wife, Denise Green Oliver of Paterson; one son, Eugene Huntington of Paterson; one daughter, Lakeima Huntington of NC; three grandchildren, Teeshon Smith, Jermaine Gray of NC and Paris Brown of Paterson; mother-in-law, Elvera Bolden; two uncles, Harold Oliver of Paterson and Jessie Oliver (Emily) of Paterson; five first cousins, Jessie Jr. Oliver (Marriem), Denise Alston (Damen) of GA, Eric Oliver (Nancy) of PA, Endora Ramos (Raymon) of Texas and Larmarr Oliver of Paterson; godson, Marquet Reynolds; and a host of other relatives and friends.

When I Must Leave You

*When I must leave you for a little while Please do not grieve and shed wild tears
And hug your sorrow to you through the years
But start out bravely with a gallant smile
And for my sake and in my name
Live on and do all things the same
Feed not your loneliness on empty days
But fill each waking hour in useful ways
Reach out your hand in comfort and in cheer
And I in turn will comfort you
And hold you near
And never, never be afraid to die
For I am waiting for you in the sky!*

-Helen Steiner Rice

Acknowledgement

Every prayer, visit, flower, cards, thought and other ways in which your sympathy and concern was expressed is deeply appreciated we saw all of them as Gods Love Expressed through you.
