Reflections Of Life

Saturday, August 20, 2011, Sackiwa William “Renz” Ntuli departed this life. Sackiwa was born to Bongwe Ntuli and Russell Branch on May 22, 1977 at Mount Sinai Hospital in New York, NY.

He attended Washington Irvin High School but received his diploma from City-As-High School. While in NY, he worked for the YMCA. “Renz” had a passion like no other for basketball. He took his talent to the Rucker and many other basketball leagues where he played in many tournaments.

He moved to Pennsylvania in 1998. While in PA, “Renz” started his family. In 2002, he was blessed with his daughter, Shanyiah and 2 ½ years later came along Sackiwa Jr. During his time in PA, he worked for the Jay Group. “Renz” enjoyed watching movies, sports, playing PS3, shopping and loved to drive. He recently got his CDL permit and was on his way to get his CDL license in PA.

He enjoyed cooking breakfast for the family and taking his kids to the movies. “Renz” recently joined a basketball league in PA, and helped them to win the championship. He was very outgoing, full of life, and had a unique way about him and would always repeat his favorite quotes “What’s going on playa” and “Stop it five”.

Surviving to mourn his passing is: his mother, Bongwe Ntuli; father, Russell Branch; fiancé, LaTosha Stewart; daughter, Shanyiah M. Ntuli; son, Sackiwa W. Ntuli Jr.; two stepchildren, Jahir and Jhabria Stewart; three brothers, Malcolm, Tyshawn, and Timothy; one special sister, Tawana; one uncle, Sackiwa I. Ntuli; four aunts, Carol Ntuli, Wanda Jones, Fluorine Smith, and Wanda Weeks; three nephews, Jayden, Xavier and Denmark; three nieces, Breanna, Xaviana and Jalyiah; special persons, Windel Smith and Joseph Bennett; and a host of aunts, uncles, special cousins and friends. He was preceded in death by his grandmother, Carrie Lee Ntuli. He will be truly missed but never forgotten.

Miss Me, But Let Me Go

When I come to the end of the road and the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom filled room,
Why cry for a soul set free?

Miss me a little-but not too long,
and not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that we once shared,
Miss me-but let me go.

For this is a journey that we all must take,
And each must go alone.

It's all part of the Master's plan,
A step on the road to home.

When you are lonely and sick at heart, Go to the friends we know.

Laugh at the things we use to do
Miss me-but let me go.
