Obituary

On May 29, 1944, Wallace L. Phifer was born to the late James and Daisy Herbert Phifer in Hayesville, North Carolina.

Wallace received all his education in North Carolina with R.A. Clement H.S. being his Alma Mater.

He had a passion for life and lived it to the fullest. Wallace had a love for photography, Cadillacs and clothing. He was always well dressed and had a great love for his family.

He leaves to mourn and will always be cherished by: his wife, Lois Phifer; daughter, Stephanie of Jamaica, NY, Stephen and Lavel of Salisbury, NC and Erice of Freeport, NY; one daughter-in-law, Baseemah Phifer of Philadelphia, PA; two sisters, Hazel Phifer of Jamaica, NY and Mary Herbert of Chicago, IL; one brother, Robert Phifer of Dekalb, IL; fourteen grandchildren; special cousin, Helen; and a host of nieces, nephews, and scores of friends. Sleep on Wallace, take your rest, we loved you dearly, but God loved you best.

In 1960, Wallace came to NY to seek a better quality of life. After obtaining gainful employment he pursued his high school sweetheart, Lois Ellis and ended their long distance engagement in marriage on October 22, 1966, they were wed in Holy Matrimony. From this union they were blessed with two children, Stephanie and Stephen Phifer. He also has two other children, Lavel and Erice with his long time companion, Vanessa.

Wallace had a great love for driving trucks. He began his career in 1962 at Double G Food, he continued his love for driving trucks as a faithful employee at L & L Painting Company until his untimely death on August 23, 2011 at Plainview North Shore LIJ Hospital when the Lord called him home.
