Obituary

Leslie Antonio Octavius Royes AKA “Chippy”, a husband, father, grandfather, brother, uncle and friend, was born on March 20, 1944 in the parish of St. Ann, Jamaica to the parents of Ida Williams and Louis Royes. He was predeceased by his parents, and at an early age became the bread winner for his family.

He did housing construction for a living and was one of the best contractors in the Guys Hill area. He did construction for fifty two years. He met Winnifred in 1967, they dated for twelve years then got married on March 24, 1979 in Linstead Baptist Church located in the parish of St. Catherine, Jamaica.

He migrated to the U.S.A in December 2004 and resided in Queens, NY where he was known as “Brown Man”; a name given to him by one of his neighbor’s grandson. Leslie Royes was a kind, loving, appreciative, and hard working man who died on August 18, 2011 doing what he loved; his work. He will be deeply missed and will always be remembered for his smiles, his kindness, his generosity, and the warmth that he exudes.

Chippy is survived by: seven kids, fifteen grandchildren, three sisters, one brother, nineteen nieces and nephews, two sons-in-law, two daughters-in-law, mother-in-law, two sisters-in-law, one brother-in-law and many friends. We love you and are all going to miss you. May God be with you onto your next journey, rest in peace.

*And God shall wipe away
all tears from their eyes;
and there shall be no more
death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain; for the former things are passed away.*
